

TechMart Electronics — Refund Policy

Eligibility

Products can be returned within 7 days of delivery if unused, in original packaging, and with all accessories and invoice included.

Defective or damaged-on-arrival products are eligible for a full refund or free replacement within 15 days of delivery.

Software, gift cards, and personal care items (e.g., earphones) are non-refundable once opened, except in case of manufacturing defect.

Refund Timeline

Once a returned product passes quality inspection, refunds are processed within 5-7 business days to the original payment method.

For Cash on Delivery orders, refunds are issued via bank transfer within 10 business days after providing account details.

Refund Amount

Refunds include the full product price. Original shipping charges are refunded only if the return is due to a TechMart error (wrong item, defect, or damage).
